

Born To Be Wild

- 1. Rebellious soul/rebel
- 2. To rebel against
- 3. To be a wild child
- 4. To conform to/to adjust to/ to attune to societal norms
- 5. To spurn smth
- 6. To deviate from smth
- 7. To be deviant
- 8. Wayward/obstinate/stubborn
- 9. Adolescence
- 10. To disobey rules
- 11. To be involved in illegal activities
- 12. To violate / break social norms
- 13. Alcohol and drug abuse
- 14. Theft
- 15. To disregard smth / to disrespect smth
- 16. To resist smth
- 17. To put up with smth
- 18. To go against the grain
- 19. To have mood swings
- 20. Appropriate/inappropriate conduct
- 21. To be an underdog
- 22. To be subjected to ostrachism

Answer the following questions:

- 1. Are you a rebellious soul? In what ways are you rebellious?
- 2. Were you a rebel when you were a teenager? How did you act?
- 3. Do/did you belong to any subcultures? If yes, what did you do?
- 4. Have you ever done any rebellious things at work/at school etc.? Tell about it.
- 5. What are deviant acts in your opinion?
- 6. What's your attitude to conformism?
- 7. What subcultures of young people do you know? Can you tell about them?
- 8. Why do you think young people form subcultures? Does it have positive or negative impact on them?
- 9. Is it important to obey the rules and norms of society?
- 10. What do you think of younger generation now? Does it have any future?
- 11. What should every person living in a society do?
- 12. Do you know any authors who wrote about being deviant and rebellious?
- 13. Have you read The Catcher in the Rye? What do you think of this book? Can you call it revolutionary?
- 14. Have you ever committed any crazy acts you were sorry about later?
- 15. Do you know any examples of deviant and controversial art? Are you impressed or inspired by such art?
- 16. Have you ever been an underdog? How can you explain that term?
- 17. Why do you think it is so important for certain people to go against the grain?
- 18. What were the main youth movements that changed the world? What is their contribution to the history of mankind?

Comment on the following statements:

- "I rebel; therefore I exist." Albert Camus
- "Be realistic demand the impossible!" Jean-Paul Sartre
- "A 'normal person' is what is left after society has squeezed out all unconventional opinions and aspirations out of a human being." Mokokoma Mokhonoana
- "Forbidden things are always better" S.Loots

www.start2talk.ru

"Apparently when it's two people, it's quirky and funny, but when it's a person doing the same stuff on her own, it's rebellious and antisocial." Katie Alender, Bad Girls Don't Die